1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 50-06 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to the lease of unused real property at the North Dakota school for the
3 blind; to amend and reenact sections 15-47-27.2, 15.1-02-07, 25-06-02, 25-06-02.1, 25-06-03,
4 25-06-04, 25-06-05, and 25-06-09 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to placement of
5 the North Dakota school for the blind under the authority of the department of human services;
6 and to repeal section 25-06-07 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the provision of 7 instruction at the North Dakota school for the blind.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

9 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 15-47-27.2 of the 1999 Supplement to the North
10 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

11 15-47-27.2. Teachers employed by the North Dakota youth correctional center,
12 school for the deaf, and school for the blind.

13 1. The term "teacher", as used in this section, means a contracted state employee
14 licensed by the education standards and practices board to teach in this state,
15 whose primary task is to provide direct instruction in a classroom, or on an 16 individualized basis, and whose work schedule must be in accordance with the 17 school calendar, guidance counselors, school librarians, itinerant outreach
18 teachers, and vocational and other technological resource personnel who are 19 required to meet the same teaching and licensure requirements. The term does 20 not include superintendents, assistant superintendents, principals, supervisory
21 personnel, substitutes, and all paraprofessionals.

22 2. The ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ executive director of the department of 23 human services for the school for the blind ~~and, the superintendent of public~~ 24 instruction for the school for the deaf, and the director of the division of juvenile services with the approval of the director of the department of corrections and rehabilitation for the North Dakota youth correctional center in administering the schools under their authority shall develop contracts for employment of teachers in their departments and establish teacher personnel policies needed for administration of the schools. The contracts may include assignment of job duties, teacher salaries, hours, and job titles, a school calendar, and a salary schedule. The personnel policies adopted under this section must include job descriptions and nonrenewal, discipline, and dismissal procedures, and must seek to harmonize the rights of teachers with law governing state employees. The executive director of the department of human services, the superintendent of public instruction, and the director of the division of juvenile services with the approval of the director of the department of corrections and rehabilitation shall work together in the development of personnel policies for teachers employed by their respective departments. Each teacher is entitled to receive a printed copy of a master agreement, which consists of a policy manual and an individualized contract specifying the annual school calendar and each teacher's contracted hours, rate of pay, job title, salary schedule, applicable benefits, and other details pertinent to a teacher's employment.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-02-07 of the 1999 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-02-07. Superintendent of public instruction - Lease of unused real property.

1. The superintendent of public instruction may lease surplus portions of real property, including buildings and improvements, owned by the state and administered by the superintendent of public instruction at the school for the blind, ~~the school for the deaf;~~ and the division of independent study.
2. The superintendent may lease the unused portion of a building only after consultation with and adherence to conditions set by the administrator of the state fire and tornado fund.
3. A lease agreement under this section may not exceed five years.
4. A lease agreement under this section must provide that:

- a. It is cancelable by the state without liability at the end of any ~~state~~ fiscal biennium; or
 - b. It is renewable at the sole discretion of the superintendent of public instruction at the beginning of each fiscal biennium.
5. The superintendent may set additional terms and conditions for leases under this section.
 6. The attorney general shall review any lease under this section and approve its legal adequacy before its execution.
 7. The superintendent may expend revenues from leases under this section only with legislative approval.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 25-06-02 of the 1999 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

25-06-02. ~~Object of school~~ School for the blind - Duties and responsibilities.

1. The school for the blind is a statewide resource and referral center for the provision of services to all residents of this state, including vision specific consultations, evaluations, information, and training and loans of adaptive devices, equipment, and materials. It shall receive and educate blind and partially blind children who are residents of this state and who, because of this handicap, are not able to receive an appropriate education in the public schools of this state who are blind or visually impaired.
2. The school for the blind shall:
 - a. Collect and distribute information regarding vision services available in the state.
 - b. Assist residents to access appropriate vision services.
 - c. Provide vision services, including vision-specific consultations, evaluations, information, training, and loans of adaptive devices, equipment, and materials.
 - d. Receive and educate residents of this state who are blind or visually impaired and who, because of being blind or visually impaired, are not able to receive an appropriate education in the public schools of this state.

e. Provide instruction in general education subjects and instruction in vision-specific subjects, including orientation, mobility, braille, braille music, daily living skills, technology, vocational training, and recreation.

3. For purposes of this chapter, a blind person is an individual who is totally blind or whose central visual acuity does not exceed twenty/two hundred in the better eye with corrective lenses, or the widest diameter of the visual field is no greater than twenty degrees; and a visually impaired person is an individual with an impairment in vision which, even with correction, adversely affects the individual's functional ability.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 25-06-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

25-06-02.1. School for the blind - Appointment of superintendent, budget, staff, and reporting structure. The superintendent of the school for the blind is appointed by and reports to the ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ executive director of the department of human services. The superintendent of the school for the blind, with the approval of the ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ executive director of the department of human services, may determine the age required for admission. The superintendent of the school for the blind shall furnish application blanks upon request, and no person may be admitted to the institution

1 until the application giving such information as the ~~superintendent of public instruction~~
2 executive director of the department of human services requires has been returned to and
3 approved by the superintendent of the school for the blind. An applicant admitted to the school
4 for the blind must be furnished transportation by the school as provided in the student's 5 individualized education program at the most economical rate possible, and yet meet the 6 student's needs. Each such applicant who is a resident of this state and who, because of 7 blindness and other ~~handicaps~~ disabilities is unable to receive an education in the public
8 schools, is entitled to receive an education in the school for the blind at the expense of the 9 state.

10 SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 25-06-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is 11 amended and reenacted as follows:

12 25-06-05. Admission of nonresidents. Blind children of suitable age who are not
13 residents of this state may enroll in the school for the blind upon payment in advance of the cost
14 of the education as determined by the ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ executive director of 15 the department of human services. Nonresident children, however, may not be received to the 16 exclusion of children who are residents of this state.
